Coral Bay Bowls Association is 100% committed to data protection. That's why we welcome the General Data Protection Regulation (also known as the GDPR), which was approved and adopted by the European Union (EU).

The GDPR is a regulation intended to strengthen and unify data protection for all individuals within the EU. It aims to protect the fundamental right to privacy and the protection of personal data.

CORAL BAY BOWLS ASSOCIATION PRIVACY POLICY

Your privacy is important to us. This notice (Privacy Notice) applies to personal information we collect from you when you use this website. Some of the links on this website may lead you to other websites and you should read those notices carefully.

Information we may collect from you: We may collect and process the following information from you;

- Information that you provide to us, for example when you fill out a contact or website form, or if you register to receive alerts, updates, or our newsletters
- Information that we obtain or learn, such as information about the browser or device you use to access this website, how you use this website and the pages you visit, traffic and your location data

We may also ask you for information if you experience problems when using this website.

How we use your information: We will only use your information where we have your consent or we have another lawful reason for using it. We use your personal information on the basis that it is within our legitimate interests in operating/maintaining the website and providing you with site functionality. We use information provided or obtained via the website to:

- respond to your queries and feedback (for example, if you have asked a question or submitted feedback via the website)
- provide you with information you have requested or which we feel may interest you, unless you tell us otherwise
- allows you to participate in any interactive features of the website
- notify you about changes to the website
- provide you with alerts or updates where you have consented to receive these by registering on the website
- ensure the website content is presented in the most effective manner for the device you are accessing it from
- undertake data analytics to learn more about how you and others interact with the website
- detect and prevent misuse or abuse of this website

- when leaving comments we collect details of comment made, IP address and browser type.

We also use information to meet our compliance obligations and comply with other laws and regulations and to share with regulators and other authorities. This may include using it to help detect or prevent crime (including terrorism financing)

IP addresses: We may collect information about your computer (or mobile device) including where available your IP address, operating system, and browser type for system administration purposes. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns and does not identify any individual.

Cookies: We use cookies and similar technologies to distinguish you from other users of this website, to improve your experience when accessing this website, and to improve the website. What are cookies? Cookies are small pieces of data that websites store on your browser when you visit them. Cookies are useful because they allow a website to recognise your visit and collect information about how you use the website.

How long we keep your information: The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you.

We retain information to comply with legal or regulatory requirements and may sometimes need to keep it for a long period, if we do not need to retain it for long, we delete, destroy, or anonymise it sooner.

How we keep your information secure

We use a range of measures to keep your information safe and secure which may include encryption and other forms of security. We require any third parties who carry out any work on our behalf to comply with appropriate standards to protect any information and appropriate measures for the use and transfer of information.

Our Association is hosted on the Wix.com platform. Wix.com provides us with the online platform that allows us to provide our services to you. Your data may be stored through Wix.com's data storage, databases and the general Wix.com applications. They store your data on secure servers behind a firewall.

All direct payment gateways offered by Wix.com and used by our company adhere to the standards set by PCI-DSS as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover. PCI-DSS requirements help ensure the secure handling of credit card information by our store and its service providers.

Your Rights You have several rights in relation to the information that we hold about you;

- the right to access information we hold about you and to obtain information about how we process it
- the right to withdraw your consent to our processing of your information, which you can do at any time. We may continue to process your information if we have another legitimate reason for doing so
- the right to request that we rectify your information if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- in some circumstances, the right to request that we erase your information. We may continue to retain your information if we are entitled to require to retain it

You can exercise your rights by contacting us using the details set out in the Contact Us Section of the website.

We reserve the right to modify this privacy policy at any time, so please review it frequently. Changes and clarifications will take effect immediately upon their posting on the website. If we make material changes to this policy, we will notify you here that it has been updated, so that you are aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we use and/or disclose it.
